To whom it may concern:

This letter is to verify the character of Gene Crane, Peter McGonagle, and Ian McGonagle.

I am a water person. In and around the water we take risks. Sometimes big risks. When you are putting "it all on the line", you choose your partners wisely. Gene, Peter and Ian have been my friends for many years. During our friendship we have shared many high risk work and athletic adventures. Who would you want to do business with, who do you trust to be your friends? These guys have, and would put their lives on the line for me. That's character!!!

Sincerely,
Mickey Munoz
